

55+ ILLUSTRATOR PRINTABLES TEMPLATES

licensing rights

The licensing is very simple. Basically it comes down to you can sell flattened PDF's that you create but not resell MY work.

You may:

- Use the templates to create your own PDF printables to resell on any platform of your choosing.
- Use templates for personal or business use, online and in print.
- Resize, crop, manipulate, and/or change template orientation in any way you want.
- Create your own printables using my templates. The copyright of your work becomes yours and you are free to sell your work (as long as the files are flattened, so that the templates are not a main component of the download).
- Use the templates for multiple businesses/blogs for which you are the owner.
- Use the templates for a client. For example, Virtual Assistants may use the templates to create printables to sell to other bloggers/shops. If you do this, please change up the design at least 50% so it's not just reselling them as-is. Please note: you may not give the actual templates to your customers. Only the PDF flattened finished work.
- Use the templates as many times as you want. There's no limit to sells! :)

You may not:

- Distribute or transfer any information, templates, or EPS files within this course to anyone outside of your household. However, there's one exception: if you hire someone to complete work for you, you may give them the templates to do the work on your behalf if they only use the templates for your projects.
- Transfer, give, or sell membership or login credentials to a third party (unless it's an assistant completing printables on your behalf) without written consent obtained directly from Sarah Titus, LLC.
- Claim the templates, graphics, fonts, or information as your own.

You may not (continued):

- Resell or giveaway templates (meaning EPS files) to anyone else outside your household or include said templates or information within your own products you sell. For example, you may use the templates to create a PDF and sell the PDF but you cannot resell or include the EPS file in any way for resale or giving away.
- Templates may not be used for any offensive, illegal, or pornographic use.

No attribution is required, however, very much welcomed. :)

I retain all rights, license, copyright, title, and ownership of the templates of my work within this course.
