

the snowman TIMES

VOLUME XI7 NUMBER 14

SINGLE COPY PRICE: $1.25

BREAKING NEWS

LOCAL SNOWMAN DISCOVERS AN ENTIRE STOCKING FULL OF CANDY!

By Flurry Frost, Village Reporter

SNOWMAN VILLAGE - A quiet morning turned sugary when Pip the Snowman spotted a giant stocking buried in a snowdrift.

Inside were candy canes, gumdrops and enough chocolate to share with the entire village!

THE MYSTERY STOCKING

"I just wanted one peppermint!"

- Pip the Snowman

SPORTS

ROOKIE SKIER BREAKS SNOWY MOUNTAIN SPEED RECORD

By Slalom Sam, Sports Desk

SNOWY MOUNTAIN - First-time racer Dash Frost raced down the slope so fast that his scarf was still at the starting line!

The crowd erupted in cheers as Dash crossed the finish line on two tiny skis.

Dash Frost pictured after his big win.

"My knees are made of snow!"

- Dash Frost

WEATHER ALERT

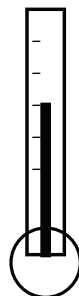

VILLAGE ANNOUNCES EMERGENCY MELTING WARNING

By Crystal Ice, Weather Editor

SNOWMAN VILLAGE - Local officials sounded the slush alarm this morning after the thermometer climbed above freezing.

Residents are urged to seek shade, sip iced cocoa and avoid sunny sidewalks until temperatures fall.

"Keep your mittens cool and your carrot noses pointed north!" announced the mayor.

36°F

ABOVE FREEZING

ENTERTAINMENT & EDITORIAL

SNOWMAN CHRISTMAS LIGHT DISPLAY GOES HILARIOUSLY WRONG

By Twinkle Snow, Holiday Correspondent

FROSTY LANE - The annual tree-lighting took a surprising turn when Mr. Snowball tried to decorate himself instead of the village pine.

After several hilarious tangles, the crowd voted him "Best Dressed Snowman." He flashed a glowing smile!

"A brilliant disaster!"

- One delighted witness

THE FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS

EDITOR'S NOTE

Next year, please decorate the tree first!

THE 3-DAY FORECAST

MON	FLURRIES	24°F
TUE	BREEZY	28°F
WED	ICY	19°F

SAFETY NOTICE

When sunlight appears, stay near the peppermint tree. Free umbrellas available at the town hall.

SNOW DEPTH: 12 MARSHMALLOWS

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR SALE: One slightly used wool scarf. Still very cozy. Ask for Mittens.

WANTED: Extra carrot noses. Serious inquiries only.

LOST: Red earmuffs near the sled hill. Reward: 3 gumdrops.

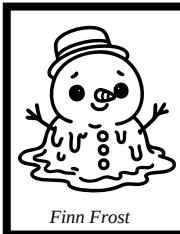

VILLAGE BULLETIN

Next town meeting: under the big pine tree, right after the snowfall.

EXCLUSIVE!

PUDDLE SURVIVOR SPEAKS

Finn Frost

THE INSIDE STORY

"I SURVIVED A GIANT PUDDLE!"

Interview by Snowy Sue

Q: How did you land in the puddle?

FINN: "I followed a butterfly and forgot it was spring!"

Q: How did you escape?

FINN: "A friend rolled me a giant ice cube. I hopped on and floated home!"

Q: What is your advice?

FINN: "Look before you leap, and always pack an extra snowball."